

Imagine you could turn into an ocean animal for one whole day. What animal would you choose to be. How would you spend your day?

I am imagining myself as a Blue Whale for one whole day. There are 2 reasons behind this. First is blue is my favorite color. Second is Blue Whale is the largest animal on earth.

I want to enjoy this day fully!!

So, I will start my day by roaming/swimming here and there, here and there and will make new Blue Whale friends. I will swim on full speed today to cover the most part of the ocean. During my journey, when I get hungry-hungry-hungry I will eat lots of Krills with help of my baleen as I don't have teeth today. I want to meet all species today in the ocean. Now I made Blue Whale friends I will enjoy with them! SUPER FUN!!

I will talk to them through grunts, moans, clicks. Today my voice is super loud, it can go over 100 miles and can talk to my new friends from far away too!

It is my dreaming day with lots of fun.
